Per our conversation, since the Director will be out of town on 13 April, he won't be able to accept this invitation. Do you want us to call Solarz' office, or will you?

The Honorable Stansfield Turner
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Stan:

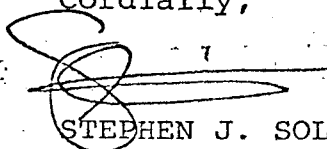

I'm in the process of organizing a policy seminar for some of my more important friends and followers back in Brooklyn here in Washington on Thursday, April 13, and I'd very much appreciate it if you (and your wife if she would like to come) could brief the group at dinner at our home in McLean that evening. I think it would really add enormously to the significance of the day if you were able and willing to brief the group on the changing role and responsibilities of the agency and then to answer whatever questions they may have for you.

It's a pretty high-powered group and while it would undoubtedly be enormously beneficial for them to have an opportunity to meet with you, I also think it might be useful for you to get a sense of the kind of concerns which some significant citizens have in connection with the role and work of the Agency.

If it's not possible for you to have dinner with us that evening because of time limitations, I'd still appreciate it if you could at least arrange to spend an hour with us after or before dinner so that they could have an opportunity to see you in action.

If you can have someone on your staff get in touch with Carol Ditta at my Washington office (225-2361), the necessary arrangements can be made.

Cordially,

STEPHEN J. SOLARZ
